Bluetooth® 4.0 and 2.4 GHz Wireless Technologies Combined in One Impressive Mouse

The Manhattan Dual-Mode Mouse expands your access to the multiple electronic devices you use every day. The combined Bluetooth 4.0 and RF technologies let you easily connect to and switch between your computer, tablet, smartphone or other compatible device with little lag time. All it takes is a touch of the conveniently located push-button on the top of the mouse, and you're in either Bluetooth or 2.4 GHz mode, ready to drive the device.

Made to Go With You

This Dual-Mode Mouse is designed to keep you connected to your devices wherever you take them. Its ABS plastic and solid construction helps it withstand the stresses of daily use and transport. Simply slip it into your computer or laptop bag and you're on your way.

A Mouse Designed for Multiple Applications and Different Hands

With its three-button setup and adjustable 800-, 1200- and 1600-dpi resolutions, this mouse is both immediately familiar and fully adaptable to your tasks and pastimes. Its ambidextrous shape makes it a perfect fit whether you're right- or left-handed. So you're well equipped whether you use it to work with graphics, play the latest games or move steadily through a hefty spreadsheet.
